Reporting Scores to the Pediatric Review Committee

The ABP will provide certifying examination scores to the Pediatric Review Committee (RC) when needed for training program evaluation.

In its requirements for accreditation the RC states that in its evaluation of training programs it will take into consideration the information provided by the ABP regarding trainee performance on the certifying examinations over a period of several years. Reports are generated for the RC after examinees and program directors are notified of examination results.

The summary of the examination scores sent to the RC includes summary data for the program over the previous 5 years. This data includes the numbers of first time takers who passed the examination.
